

6. Give an example of a time you changed the way you normally act or behave because of a situation you were in or because of the person you were with.

7. What are some expectations that teachers and administrators have of you as a student in school?

8. What are some of the “unwritten” rules of dating?

9. If you had to teach someone else something you know, what would you teach them? (Something you know a great deal of information or are very interested in.)

10. Do you feel that you generally have a positive or negative attitude most of the time? Does your attitude change in different situations?

11. What is a way you can show respect to your:

Friends

Teachers

Parents